The Jack Prelutsky Holiday CD Audio Collection

Synopsis

The poet laureate of the preposterous, Jack Prelutsky, takes on the wonder and absurdity of the holidays in this collection of his poetry. From the romance of Valentine's Day to the thrills of Halloween, from the stuffing (and over-stuffing) of Thanksgiving to the joy of Christmas, Jack captures these milestones of childhood with delightfully silly poems. Audio includes: It's Halloween: poems to spice up the holiday that ghouls and ghosts love most; It's Thanksgiving: Thanksgiving poems good every day of the year; It's Christmas: a celebration of the ups and downs of the season; It's Valentine's Day: a delectable and ingenious collection of Valentine poems.

Customer Reviews

I love Jack Prelutsky and have numerous books. In fact, I use them in my classroom so much that they are falling to pieces. I have him reading his poems on both cassette tapes and records (told you it's been long) but I've misplaced the Christmas cassette so when I saw all the holiday books on CD I jumped at the chance to get it. However, it is just Jack reading. There isn't any music or sound affects in the background. Really disappointed!!! I might as well read the poems to the kids. Sorry, I wasted my money.

Not the same. I grew up listening to the cassette version of It's Halloween where they sing and have more emotion! This is just the same person reading the book in a monotone voice. Very disappointed. If anyone knows where to find the original version please let me know!!!!

This audio book is interwoven throughout all of our family holiday traditions--full of funny, kid-friendly poetry that keeps them interested while sneaking in a growing love and appreciation for this art. Our favorite genre is Thanksgiving. After Halloween is over and it's too early for Christmas carols, we break out the Thanksgiving poetry--and it is hilarious! I also highly recommend the hard copy books.
