Customer Reviews

I found this book brand new for $1 at a Goodwill store; what a great find! As a teacher, this tickled my fancy for high interest non-fiction material for reluctant readers like my husband. I was hoping to encourage him to read with our son. My son is five and loves Batman and science. He loved this book. I even got my non-reading husband to read a chapter to him and my 19-year-old nephew read a chapter to him and listened to four. We all learned from it and there were lots of gasps and "Wows" from the kinder. I want the rest of the series!

Theses are great books, but I would recommend buying the large book that is a compilation of all of the individual topic books.
